Closed	Closed	Closed	Closed	Closed	Open

Safe Handling Courses are conducted in Range 3 starting at 12n and concluding at 2.00pm

The Club provides everything required for the $50 Course Fee, which is refundable upon joining the Club.

To make a booking you need to visit the club to enquire about the Course requirements. Its necessary to pay the Fee before a booking is confirmed.

A fully licensed experienced pistol shooter will supervise each person on the Course.

To undertake the Course you must complete a P650 form which will be explained to you when you visit the Club, this will allow you to attend for 1 Calendar month to shoot using Club Pistols (under supervision) before you decide if Pistol Shooting is something you want to do as a Sport.

A second Stage of the Safe Handling for Pistols is undertaken when you are issued with a Probationary Pistol Licence for 12 months, when you become a Club Member.

This involves completing 3 Competitive Shooting Matches within the first 6 months after receiving your Licence.

You are able to purchase two pistols after completing this requirement and having your licence for 6 months.
